SELECTMEN'S LETTER

In the past the Town Report has carried the Selectmen's Report of net assessed valuation (including breakdowns) the total of taxes to be committed and the report on expenditures. Where as your Selectmen used to meet twice monthly the Board has met in the past year several times weekly to cope with the increased volume of business. In addition there have been representatives of the Board in attendance at various associations meetings in Concord; Tax Commission, New Hampshire Municipal Association, Assessors etc. The Selectmen have also had representatives to various local hearings in Hampton, Exeter and Portsmouth.

The Chairman of the Selectmen serves on the Municipal Budget Committee; attends to payrolls, correspondence and account books. One member serves as secretary, makes out the Poll and Head Tax Book and serves on the Planning Board. Another is in charge of the Inventory of Real Estate; Veterans property exemptions and is Health Officer.

Raymond O. Hobbs maintains the property assessment cards data along with the issuance of Building Permits as a Zoning Inspector. Since the reassessment of all property it is significant that less than six property owners have paid taxes under protest and appealed to the Tax Commission, and that, the year after the revaluation, the rate went up one dollar. Department heads report weekly to discuss work schedules, requisition slips, budget information and to make recommendations to the Selectmen.

Important — Fill out Inventory of Property Assessment Blanks between April 1st and April 15, 1964.

Less than 50% returned in 1963. No appeal rights for review of assessments by the Tax Commission are considered if an application isn't on file.

As a result of self determination to familiarize himself with the Interests and Dividends Tax Structure, Mr. Percy C. Rogers Selectman has increased the revenue from the state substantially.

All minutes of the Selectmens Meetings are a matter of record and approved.

The Selectmen record here their appreciation of the assistance of Mrs. Barbara Luther and of all Town Committee members.

REPORT OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

Each year the Fire Department is more active and necessary for the assistance and protection it is called upon to give. In 1963 a total of seventy-two calls were received. A break down of these calls are as follows: 5 resuscitator calls, 50 calls for grass, children playing with matches, incinerators, town dump, trucks, cars, smoke checks and electrical fires. Seventeen Mutual Aid calls were received: Greenland 2, Rye 1, Exeter 4, Stratham 1, Seabrook 2, Hampton 6, and a riot call to Hampton Beach. We received Mutual Aid through the use of the Hampton Beach Ladder truck for the fire caused by lightening at the Congregational-Christian Church.

With the fine cooperation of the Principal and teachers at the Center School, Fire prevention week was observed with a display of Fire Equipment, a school inspection, and a Fire drill.

Captain Donald Lane of the Portsmouth Fire Dept., an instructor on Fire Fighting, sponsored by the State Board of Education, conducted a ten week spring training course on Fire pump operation and hose evolutions which has been very useful.

The Fire Chief and members of the Fire Department want to extend their thanks to the towns people for the fine cooperation extended during the explosive dry spell we had last November. The use of outside incinerators and fire places or the careless disposal of a cigarette could have caused a very serious situation in our town.

Litter looks loathsome, but even worse, it can be lethal. Take an accumulation of papers and other litter-indoors or out-add just one spark, and you have a truly deadly combination. Every twelve minutes an American home is damaged or destroyed by a fire starting in rubbish or litter. Combustible litter discarded in wooded areas by picnickers or motorists, together with the dry foliage of autumn, creates a special danger.

On discovering a fire in your home be sure everyone is out of the building and then call the Fire Dept. giving your name, address, and nature of fire as this is very important.

CURTIS D. MARSTON, Fire Chief

North Hampton Fire Dept.

NORTH HAMPTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

During the year 1963, the Police Department showed a substantial increase in its duties. In addition to the constant increase in population, we have a great many transfers to and from the area.

The installation of traffic control lights at the intersection of Route 1 and Atlantic Avenue has decreased the number of accidents occurring there considerably.

Although the crimes reported in 1963 were of a more serious nature than in previous years, we were able to cope with the situations through our own efforts and the complete cooperation of other law enforcement agencies in the area, including county, state and local departments.

Entering 1964, we look forward to better traffic control to be accomplished by road marking, signs and stricter enforcement of the Motor Vehicle Code.

We would like to thank the inhabitants of North Hampton for their cooperation in the past and look forward to continued good relations in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH A. O'CONNOR,

Chief of Police

REPORT OF THE PLANNING BOARD

Your Planning Board held twenty-three meetings during 1963, three of which have been Public Hearings.

Regulations were drawn governing the operation of gravel and said pits etc., and permits were granted to owners engaged in this type of business.

The Board during the year approved two sub-divisions, one of which has been recorded. One sub-division plan approved in a prior year, was withdrawn at the owner's request. The two sub-divisions approved means a potential of forty-seven new houses.

Two important changes were made during the year in regulations governing sub-divisions: (1) The type of road surface was changed in order to give a better and longer lasting road surface. (2) A filing fee for plans was adopted. The developer must pay a fee of twenty-five dollars for up to twenty-five lots and one dollar each for each additional lot. The Board has the plans recorded after approval so that there cannot be any chance of alterations.

Your Planning Board, besides its regular meetings, has made several on-site visits to gravel pits and proposed sub-divisions.

Covenants protecting the town have been made a part of the plan and are so recorded. A sample covenant reads as follows: All water mains and entrances to all lots to be installed prior to the final surfacing of the road by the so-called "Farmers Mix". Another sample covenant reads as follows: "If the above articles of agreement are not fulfilled within one year from the recording date, the Planning Board of the Town of North Hampton reserves the right to reconsider the plan".

During the past year all houses and lots in town have been numbered. It hoped that all houses will be numbered according to regulations drawn by the Board by the end of 1964. The allocation of house numbers was done by a volunteer committee consisting of Mrs. George G. Miller and Mrs. Shirley Carter. We wish to extend our thanks to them for their fine work.

Your Planning Board is asking your cooperation. This is necessary to prepare the tools for orderly community growth. This participation is two-fold. One is the affirmative vote needed for an appropriation to carry out a professional study and the other is citizens' participation to provide an essential tool to carry out the plan.

Over the past few years your Planning Board has tried its utmost to restrict undesirable development. This has led sometimes possibly to discrimination and unrelated approach in laying out our community. Your Planning Board and other community boards have spent many hours of their own time without the appropriate tools. We are finally at the point where we recognize that our own laymen talents are insufficient to cope with the pressures being applied against our community boundary line. We need guidelines, maps, and studies with facts and figures that will substantiate recommendations for orderly community growth. So far your Planning Board has coped with the problems at hand. We are now contemplating engaging professional services to prepare a Master Plan for our community through a State and Federally assisted program. North Hampton's share would only be one-third of the total cost; the rest being contributed by State and Federal Agencies. We, as members of the Planning Board, and the Selectmen feel that this would be money well spent. It is an investment in our future.

This proposed study includes land use considerations, existing as well as proposed; subsoil condition studies, which will pinpoint the areas suitable for different types of development and the areas which should not be developed; traffic and highway considerations; the economic impact of the outlying areas; the desirability of a community such as North Hampton to be used as a location for commercial, industrial and residential development and their most appropriate location within the community. Last, but not least, rules and regulations must be set forth to carry out the plan which would consist of the consideration of subdivision regulations, the zoning ordinance and other codes and ordinances which would enable the town to carry out the plan based on utility, transportation and land use factors.

WATER COMMISSIONS' REPORT

There were several meetings held by the Water Commission during 1963. As you probably heard, an increase in Water Rates was granted to the Hampton Water Works Company this year by the Public Utility Commission. The Water Commission was represented at these hearings on the proposed increase and vigorously opposed the increase but to no avail.

The Hampton Water Works Company has obtained a new source of water for its use in this town. The new wells are located on Winnicut Road. To connect these wells to their present system they are laying a water main down Post Road via Winnicut Road to connect on to their line at New Road.

On December 2, 1963 a meeting was held to discuss and act on a petition received for the extension of the water line from Colby's on Lafayette Road to the Hampton Town Line. A Public Hearing was scheduled for December 20, 1963.

It was the decision of the Water Commission that this extension be recommended to the Selectmen and Budget Committee with the understanding that no increase in taxes would be needed to finance it.

Our present Water Bonds are to be paid off this year and it would be a continuance of the present Bond Payment.

We feel that with a water supply on Lafayette Road more business will be located there in the near future with new taxable property off-setting the cost of installing the water main.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Industrial Committee consisted of Edgar Hobby, Byron Kirby, Harry Loughlin, Kendall Chevalier and Laurence Martin, Chairman.

The Industrial Committee met once during 1963 with members of the Board of Selectmen, Zoning Board, Planning Board and an interested citizen in North Hampton, Theodore Andrews, for the purpose of discussing the possibilities of bringing an industry in Town. No further action was taken by Industrial Committee.

It is hoped that the Industrial Committee will be more active in 1964.

Respectfully submitted,
LAURENCE A. MARTIN,
Chairman

THE SEACOAST REGIONAL AIRPORT PLAN

The need for a modern airport in the Seacoast Region is becoming increasingly apparent as area towns face the following facts:

1. During the past ten years there has been a sharp deterioration in the ability of surface transportation to keep up with the growing needs of this area, both from the standpoint of capacity and speed. All signs point to a continuation of this trend.

2. A developing interest in luring new industries to the area, especially in the light of the uncertain future of federal job opportunities, has focused our attention upon the value of adequate airport facilities here for private and corporate use. There has been a tremendous growth in this type of flying in the past few years and the existing private field in North Hampton is neither adequate or adaptable for future expansion. According to the Defense Department there is no possibility of joint use of Pease in the foreseeable future.

After careful planning the N. H. Aeronautic Commission and the F. A. A. have determined that an ideal location exists for a regional airport in the town of Stratham. (Pine Hill area). The proposed airport there would be strategically located between 3 major towns, would not interfere with existing buildings or property, and would be clear of the Pease Control Zone. Fourteen area towns have been invited to join in the formation of a Seacoast Regional Airport Authority which would administer the field. Once built, the proposed airport would handle all modern executive craft and "feeder" line airplanes, and would be self-supporting in all probability.

The cost of constructing this airport is $280,000. Federal funds have already been allocated for $140,000, but this aid will run out on July 1, 1964 if the local area contributions are not put up. The State has set aside another $70,000 for this project. Of the remaining $70,000 to be financed by the towns, our share would be only 3 per cent, or $2,400. North Hampton would be right on the doorstep of this facility and deserves to be represented in the Seacoast Regional Airport.

Respectively submitted,

PETER G. BROOKS

Mr. Brooks was appointed by the Board of Selectmen to represent the Town.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

For the second consecutive year the hours when the library is open have been increased. For the second consecutive year the book circulation has increased a gratifying twenty-five per cent. These figures do not show the constantly increasing use of the library for study and reading.

It was found necessary to add tables to the reading rooms to accommodate the ever-growing number of students. This poses another problem as the space for greatly needed book shelves has been reduced.

The gifts of books and magazines, acknowledged by the librarian, are a valuable addition to the library and gratefully received.

The Junior Woman's Club donated a table for the reading room. The Friends of the Library purchased a folding table which will be used for exhibits and special functions. The Senior Woman's Club provided a lighted Christmas tree and the Bush 'N' Bud Garden Club decorated the windows for the holiday season.

The Friends met once a month to mend books, type and prepare new books for circulation. They sponsored a series of events for National Library Week including a morning coffee in cooperation with the Women's Fellowship and the Ladies' Union, a program of Book Reviews by Mrs. Marion Rudkin and an exhibition of old-time arts and crafts which attracted many visitors. There was a series of story hours and a program of movies for pre-school children. An annual visit to old Portsmouth houses was conducted in the summer.

In May, the librarian, trustees and members of the Friends attended a banquet in Exeter for all district groups.

The Librarian and trustees attended meetings where the "Statewide Library Development Program" proposed by the Governor's Committee for Better Libraries was discussed. It is hoped that the 1965 Legislature will vote the funds necessary to put the system into operation.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

To the Trustees of the North Hampton Public Library:

The following is a report of the Library from Jan. 1, 1963 to December 31, 1963:

Number of new books added		438
adult fiction	112
adult non-fiction	159
juvenile fiction	79
juvenile non-fiction	88
Books given to the Library		98
Book circulation	20,464
Magazine circulation	1,152

Books and magazines were very generously given to the Library by the following: Mr. Charles M. Dale, The Bush 'N' Bud Garden Club, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Griffith, Mrs. Harold B. Farrar, Mrs. Winslow Eddy, The North Hampton Senior Woman's Club, Mrs. Herbert Bridges, Karen Shields, Mrs. Dorothy Clark, Mrs. Cord Meyer, Mrs. Philip Drake, Mrs. Peter Parker, Mrs. Edward Dodd, Mrs. Joyce Wildes, Mrs. Annie M. Corliss and Mr. Charles Breeding.

We feel that our activities during the 1963 National Library Week were very successful and rewarding. The increase in circulation this past year shows how busy the Library has become, and we do our best to meet the needs of the community — with the help of the State Library and the State Bookmobile. Your Librarian attended an all-day workshop in Concord at the New Hampshire State Library, in October, on the resources and reference materials available at the State Library. Our summer reading program continues to be very popular with the children.

PER PUPIL COST SUMMARY

NOTE: There are many ways of determining "per pupil costs" and faulty comparisons are often made unless one considers carefully the method of computation. It has been suggested that the spending be adjusted from gross to net to reflect the amount raised locally for education. Such an adjustment has been made and tuition amounts have been excluded since the average daily membership does not include tuition pupils.

If one wishes to review in depth the secondary costs their attention is directed to the Winnacunnet School Report, which report includes considerable additional information.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools

I am pleased to take this opportunity to present my third annual report to School Board Members and voters of Supervisory Union No. 21.

This year's report will include the usual membership and staff sections and four additional topics, namely; Committee of Eight Studies Union-wide Problems, Foreign Language Curriculum, Business Administrator, and Achievement Tests of Basic Skills.

Membership and Staff

Supervisory Union No. 21 continues to include eight school districts, namely; Hampton, Hampton Falls, New Castle, North Hampton, Rye, Seabrook, South Hampton, and Winnacunnet Cooperative. In December of 1963 there were in these eight districts 3,738 pupils in grades K-12 attending schools, and a total of 250 school personnel, including: administrators, teachers, nurses, secretaries, cafeteria staff, and custodians — an increase of 219 pupils over the previous year and a total of 9 additional staff members.

Charts which follow show the distribution of pupils by districts and the number of employees in the several categories in each district.

Committee of Eight Studies Union-wide Problems

Considerable thought is being given by a committee composed of representatives from each of the eight districts within Supervisory Union No. 21. Mrs. Helen Coorssen of South Hampton, Mrs. Viola Brown of Seabrook, Mrs. Helen Potvin of Rye, Mr. George Miller of North Hampton, Mrs. Carol Cole of New Castle, Mr. Robert Weaver of Hampton Falls, Mrs. Olga Casassa of Hampton and Mr. John Trumbull of Winnacunnet School Board, Hampton Falls are committee members.

One exploratory meeting was held on January 16, 1964, and the second meeting is scheduled for January 30, 1964.

The Seabrook School Board is working with a building committee to provide classrooms which are needed to house the increased enrollments. Very likely Seabrook will provide for its own pupils in grades 1-8 for several years to come. Long-range plans are uncertain at this time, and additional facilities are needed without delay.

South Hampton has already provided an addition to meet the classroom shortage in that District.

Hampton Falls may be sending, if voters in the districts concerned approve, their sixth graders to the Hampton Academy building on a tuition basis for a period not to exceed three years, while further study is given to possible district reorganization. This interim measure seems to me to be a practical way to hold action in abeyance until the appropriate long-range plans can be finalized.

North Hampton has a conspicuous space problem. A citizens' advisory committee is working cooperatively with the School Board to find some reasonable solution. Possibly North Hampton, Hampton, and Hampton Falls will decide to jointly provide for the junior high grades. It seems to me that such a plan would have both educational and economic benefits to all three districts.

Rye School District is to again consider a building program which, if approved, would provide improved facilities at the Junior High level as well as the additional classrooms needed. It may be desirable for Rye to accept, under some long-term arrangement, seventh and eighth grade students from nearby Greenland.

New Castle seems ready to work out some long-term arrangement with Portsmouth which surely could work to the advantage of both Town and City.

These suggestions record only a few of the possibilities which need further consideration. We shall look to the "Committee of Eight" to make specific recommendations after giving careful study to this rather involved and exceedingly important matter.

Foreign Language Curriculum

A thoroughly competent committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Russell Raymond, Principal of the North Hampton Elementary School, is completing a comprehensive statement of recommendations which will lead to the reorganization of modern foreign language instruction within the schools serving the Winnacunnet area. The names of other committee members follow: Mr. Otis Mudge and Mrs. Doris Valley of the Winnacunnet High School; Mr. Albert Belanger of the Hampton staff, Mr. Ronald Pomerleau, who teaches in North Hampton and Hampton; and Mrs. Gail Jenkins and Mr. Charles Coveney of the Seabrook faculty.

The study has been both intensive and extensive with state-wide recognition coming to the Committee.

The recommendations of the Committee are being followed in part this year, and it is expected that there will be full compliance in all districts for the school year 1964-65. Some of the basic recommendations follow:

1. The study of French should begin in grade six and the opportunity should be given to students to continue the study through grade twelve.

2. All pupils in grade six are to have the opportunity to take French if it will not be detrimental to the pupil's effort to acquire the usual skills for the grade. Only those determined to have achieved success in the study are to take it in grade seven. An elimination may take place during the year.

3. Pupils will not be marked with letter grades in French in grade six. A progress report will be given.

Pupils will receive marks in grade seven through grade twelve.

4. Grade six classes will meet a minimum of three 30-minute periods each week and those for grades seven and eight will meet for four 45-minute periods each week. French II, III, IV, V, will meet for five 50-minute periods.

5. The same basic text is to be used in all schools following the program. The basic texts for level one will be those of the HOLT, RINEHART, WINSTON COMPANY — a. ECOUTER ET PARLER for book one.

b. PARLER ET LIRE for the second book.
French II - LIRE ET ECRIRE

6. All teachers of a foreign language should be specialists in the language.

7. The guide prepared by this committee should be followed by all teachers of French in the cooperative district in order that a proper evaluation may be made in the future.

8. The introductory program is to commence with imitative behavior using the audio-lingual approach.

9. The study of formal grammar or structure does not belong in the audio-lingual phase.

10. The instructors in the language will recommend which pupils will take the French II when entering high school.

11. Pupils entering grade seven who have not had French previously will not be permitted to take French until grade nine.

12. Students should be able to begin a two-, three-, or four-year sequence in high school. Administrators should discourage students from planning to take just one year of a language. Students starting in high school are more mature and may be expected to have a more concentrated program.

13. The work of level one will have its work divided approximately as follows: Listening 50%, Speaking 30%, Reading 15%, and Writing 5%.

14. Homework assignments should be given for each class period.

15. Language laboratories are essential for high school use. Junior High students will find them of value in working for more precise pronounciation. There are many types of laboratories, and before purchasing one, it should be seen in operation.

Mr. Raymond's leadership and the work of this committee is recognized as professionally significant.

Business Administrator Proposed for Supervisory Union No. 21

The work load at the Supervisory Union Office is such that an additional person is needed to effectively attend to business matters. The repair and maintenance work on eleven school buildings requires more supervision than the present staff is able to give. Also help is needed in the interests of business economy to supervise more closely the budgeting-procurement-accounting cycle of school business.

The eight districts served now have more than 3,700 pupils enrolled and about 250 employees, including: teachers, nurses, custodians, and lunchroom workers. The several school boards have studied the staffing problem and, with encouragement from the State Department of Education, have unanimously voted to include an article in the warrant of each separate district.

The State Department of Education has indicated that this Union is high on a priority list to receive $2,500 annually to be used to help defray the salary for such position, providing voters approve the school boards' recommendation.

The business of Supervisory Union No. 21 exceeds 2 million dollars annually, and the full-time attention of a trained business administrator to serve as an assistant to the superintendent is being recommended as a practical and necessary solution to the problem.

A starting salary of $6,000 has been suggested with $2,500 from State funds, and $3,500 raised through proration to the eight school districts. The cost to each district has been computed to include both the Winnacunnet assessment and the pre-existing district assessment as shown below:

	Winnacunnet Share	Elementary School District Share	Total
Hampton	$ 615.93	$1,085.00	$1,700.93
Hampton Falls	71.51	100.98	172.49
North Hampton	201.21	320.77	521.98
Seabrook	199.85	314.12	513.97
New Castle		73.15	73.15
Rye		458.50	458.50
South Hampton		58.98	58.98
TOTALS	$1,088.50	$2,411.50	$3,500.00

Achievement Tests of Basic Skills

(Grades 3 - 8)

The Iowa Test of Basic Skills provides for the measurement of certain skills involved in reading, work-study, language, and arithmetic. These skills are crucial and determine, to a considerable degree, the extent to which a pupil can profit from continued instruction.

The tests are designed more to measure the ability to apply generalizations than the remembering of them. Thus a youngster must not only know the rules for capitalization, but he must also demonstrate his understanding of the rules by using them.

Teachers use achievement tests to become quickly and dependably acquainted with the educational accomplishments of each pupil. They need such objective information to adapt instruction to individual and group needs.

Another purpose is to supply the pupil and his parents with important information needed in the selection of appropriate educational goals.

These tests also provide school officials with an objective and dependable basis for the evaluation of school and class achievement. We can identify curriculum strengths and weaknesses, and a comprehensive analysis will reveal implications concerning the effectiveness of instruction.

From test results we may measure growth as well as present standing. Two students scoring at the same level may represent quite different rates of growth. It is hardly enough to determine achievement, we must evaluate the achievement in terms of the pupil's capacity. In fact, it would not be especially important to determine present position unless it is considered in the light of other factors. Please keep in mind that achievement test results provide only a partial basis for evaluating instruction as you consider the union-wide averages.

This year's union-wide averages compare favorably with the schools across the Nation which were selected at random to make up the normative sample. Union No. 21 third graders scored on the average above 91 per cent of the schools included in the normative sample; the average fourth grade score was above the score of 84 per cent of the schools sampled; the fifth grade averaged higher than 88 per cent of the schools; sixth graders out-distanced 85 per cent; seventh graders scored on the average above 83 per cent of the schools; and this Union's eighth grade exceeded 86 per cent of the schools used to prepare the norms.

To bring fuller meaning to these statistics, one should realize that New England's norms are usually higher than the norms prepared for the Nation as a whole. Nevertheless, these scores are very favorable indeed.

All seven communities within Union No. 21 can well be proud of the pupils, and the educational opportunity which is being provided from tax dollars to insure human progress.

A Point of View

Increased costs of education, as hesitant as we may be to accept them, are surely to be preferred over the more costly alternatives such as expanded welfare services and penal custody.

Although no single factor can be held entirely responsible for human progress, a quality education made available to youth seems to me to hold great promise.

Your support is appreciated and needed.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

To the Superintendent of Schools and the School Board of North Hampton:

Pupils of the North Hampton School have been weighed, measured and given eye screening tests. Through the courtesy of the Hampton Lions Club, the school was given a vision testing machine called the TITMUS. With the aid of this new machine, it is now possible to get much more accurate eye screening results. Twenty-two pupils were found who needed complete eye exams. All were given treatment.

Students of grades one, three, five, seven and new pupils were given hearing tests. Two were found to have hearing problems. Both were treated by an otologist.

Tuberculin patch tests were done on first, fourth and seventh grade children. All teachers were either patch tested or had chest X-Rays. All reactions were negative.

Teachers were offered the flu vaccine and most of them took advantage of this opportunity.

Physical examinations by Dr. Charles Bailey were given to fourth and seventh graders, and for all boys who participated in sports.

Our pre-school round-up day was held on May ninth with fifty-four children in attendance. They were given physicals, weighed, measured and eyes and ears screened. Complete health records were started on each child.

A speech therapist evaluated most of the children and some were found who had speech problems.

Our itinerary speech classes have been carried on throughout the school year with sixteen children being seen each week.

Classroom visits are made regularly. Health problems are discussed with individuals and in groups.

My thanks to the members of the Hampton Lions Club for their continued assistance to me during the year. Two hundred and sixty-two home contacts were made by me in 1963.

JESSIE M. SHORT, R. N.,

School Nurse
